National Aviation Day in August

August 19th - Birthdays of Orville Wright and Katharine Wright

National Aviation Day is a United States national observation that celebrates the development of aviation. The holiday was established in 1939 by President Franklin Roosevelt by presidential proclamation. August 19 is the birthday of both Orville Wright (1871) and his sister Katharine Wright (1874).

AUGUST 19 ~ NATIONAL AVIATION DAY

This is also a good time to celebrate by reading more about the Wrights. Besides Wilbur and Orville, Katharine's support of their efforts also contributed greatly to aviation, along with many other accomplishments of her own. See the five links below for some interesting reading. The first two are online posts with interesting information about Katharine Wright, and the third about the brothers. The last two are reviews of books about the Wright brothers and flight.

Dayton Concours d'Elegance

Carillon Historical Park Sunday, Sept. 20, 2026

The 19th annual Dayton Concours d'Elegance, a fundraiser benefiting Carillon Historical Park, returns Sunday, Sept. 20, 2026, from 10:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This year's event celebrates the 100th anniversary of Pontiac. Founded by General Motors in 1926, the iconic American automaker was part of a company that once had a larger presence in Dayton than anywhere outside of Detroit.

Featuring more than 150 cars and motorcycles, live music, food, historical demonstrations and family-friendly activities, the event will also commemorate the 50th anniversary of the BMW 3 Series.

The weekend begins with the Dayton Concours d'Elegance Preview Party from 6 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 19. Guests will enjoy an exclusive first look at many of the Concours vehicles, along with live music, food and beverages, a silent auction, an automotive art pavilion and more.

For the first time, the preview party will be held indoors at the Eichelberger Pavilion at Carillon Historical Park. This year's Speakeasy-themed event will feature a select number of automobiles displayed both inside the ballroom and throughout the surrounding grounds, giving guests an up-close look at some of the weekend's most remarkable vehicles.

The Dayton Concours d'Elegance showcases meticulously restored and exceptionally preserved automobiles and motorcycles spanning more than a century of automotive history. Guests can admire everything from brass-era automobiles to iconic classics from the 1950s and 1960s. Every entry is judged in multiple classes and competes for prestigious awards.
